

But what things were gain to me, these I have counted loss for Christ. (Philippians 3:7)

1. The Lord is my delight!
To serve my Sov'reign King;
My life poured out to do His will,
A joyful offering!
2. As I arise this day,
May I count all things loss,
To the know the joy of life in Christ
By taking up my cross.
3. I long to be like Christ,
His will my meat and drink,
Delighting in obedience
In all I do and think.
4. This day the Lord has giv'n
Belongs to Him, not me,
To be lived out in faith and love,
And not spent selfishly.
5. Each person that I meet,
Each circumstance I face,
Is an occasion to make known
The riches of His grace.
6. My joy is in the Lord,
To serve Him all my days;
My life poured out for all to see,
A sacrifice of praise.

WORDS: Ken Puls, 1998
MUSIC: Robert Jackson, 1894
THEME: The Joy of Serving Christ
Words ©1998 Kenneth A Puls; Music ©Public Domain
Used by Permission
kenpulsmusic.com