

42

GATHERED NOW, WE COME TO WORSHIP

For we do not preach ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord, and ourselves your bondservants for Jesus' sake. (2 Corinthians 4:5)

1. Gath - er'd now, we come to wor - ship, Hearts u - nit - ed, sing - ing praise!
 2. We come not for en - ter - tain - ment, Not for out - ward pomp and show.
 3. Lord, we pray now through the preach - ing, You would make the Sa - vior known.

We would look to Je - sus on - ly, Let - ting none dis - tract our gaze.
 Our hearts hun - ger for the Scrip - tures; More of Je - sus we would know.
 May Your mes - sen - ger dim - in - ish That we might see Christ a - lone.

May we of - fer mu - sic fit - ting For the wor - ship of our King.
 In our prayers and con - ver - sa - tions, In the wor - ship that we bring,
 We come not to hear man's wis - dom; Man's ad - vice we do not need.

Let us fore - most seek His plea - sure As our voi - ces join to sing.
 Christ must oc - cu - py the cen - ter, Glor - i - fied in ev' - ry - thing.
 Lead us to lush, ver - dant Scrip - ture— There, on Je - sus, let us feed!

WORDS: Kenneth A. Puls, July 20, 1999
 MUSIC: Franz Josef Haydn, 1797

Words ©1999 Kenneth A. Puls
 Used by Permission
 kenpulsmusic.com

AUSTRIAN HYMN
 8.7.8.7.D.