

SUFFICIENT IS THE WORD OF GOD

Instead you ought to say, "If the Lord wills, we shall live and do this or that" (James 4:15).

1. Suf - fi - cient is the Word of God That we may know His will;
 2. How vain the ques - tions in my heart To know what lies a - head,
 3. Our God has pur - posed and de - signed Each mo - ment of each day,
 4. For who can know the mind of God, Know what to - mor - row brings?
 5. To - mor - row need not cause us fear, For God knows what will be.

And trust each day His pro - vi - dence By faith con - tent and still.
 When I ne - glect to read His Word And know not what He said.
 And though we rise and make our plans 'Tis He di - rects our way.
 And who can grasp His pro - vi - dence To un - der - stand all things?
 Suf fi - cient that we know His Word To walk o - bed - ient - ly.

The se - cret things be - long to God; Our lives are His to lead.
 I need not look be - yond His Word To know His will for me;
 Thus we should say when we a - rise: "Lord - will - ing I shall stand."
 Our fu - ture rests with - in God's hands: And we must leave it there;
 Where He has spok - en, let us hear; Up - on His Word we stand!

But He has giv - en us His Word And that is all we need.
 If I but walk with - in its light My path I'll plain - ly see.
 For we, ex - cept His Word re - veals, Know not what He has planned.
 Con - tent to walk each day by faith, With - in His lov - ing care.
 Where He is si - lent, let us rest And trust His kind, good hand.

WORDS: Kenneth A. Puls, July 22, 2000

MUSIC: William Croft, 1678-1727

Words ©2000 Kenneth Puls
 Used by Permission
 kenpulsmusic.com

ST. MATTHEW

C.M.D.