

He is the way, the truth,
The life
in His presence is fullness of joy

Isaiah 55

AZ

Come to Me, you thirsty
Come to Me and drink Though you have no money Come and buy and eat for why to do spending for that which is not bread and squander all your wages on empty things instead

Come to Me and listen Come feast on what is good though you are empty handed And can't do what you should

In Him
~~For here~~ abundance are flows immeasurable depths and light Come let your soul delight
For He is all you need

Come and seek the Lord
While He may be found His grace has now come near His mercy has come down

Come to me you weary Come to me and find rest take my yoke upon you

Learn to know peace
Learn to know rest

For Christ is all you'll ever need

your delight
