

Be Still and Know That Thou Art God

Be still, and know that I am God . . . (Psalm 46:10)

1. Let me, Thou sov' - reign Lord of all,
 2. Let me not mur - mur nor re - pine
 3. When and where e - ver Thou shalt smite,
 4. Still let this truth sup - port my mind,
 5. When this af - flict - ed soul shall rise

Low at Thy foot - stool hum - bly fall;
 Un - der these try - ing strokes of Thine;
 Teach me to own Thy sov' - reign right;
 Thou canst not err nor be un - kind;
 To cease - less joys a - bove the skies,

And while I feel af - flic - tion's rod,
 But while I walk the mourn - ful road
 And un - der - neath the heav - iest load,
 And thus ap - prove Thy chast' - ning rod,
 I shall, as ran - somed by Thy blood,

Be still and know that Thou art God.
 Be still and know that Thou art God.
 Be still and know that Thou art God.
 And know Thou art my Fa - ther, God!
 For - e - ver sing, "Thou art my God!"
