

22 O SINNER, COME TO JESUS CHRIST!

... you are in Christ Jesus, who became for us wisdom from God—and righteousness and sanctification and redemption (1 Corinthians 1:30)

1. How deep the sin - ner's need for Christ. O see how des - perate his es - tate.
 2. The sin - ner stum - bles, lost and blind. Of dan - ger he is un - a - ware.
 3. The sin - ner stands con - demned to die. No sin of his re - mains un - known.
 4. The sin - ner walks a crook - ed path. Pol - lut - ed in the mire of sin,
 5. The sin - ner lies bound tight with chains. By sin and death he is en - slaved.

How vast the rav - a - ges of sin That make each sin - ner's debt so great.
 In ig - nor - ance he seeks not God. He sees no need; he has no care.
 Each tes - ti - fies a guil - ty plea, De - serv - ing judge - ment from God's throne.
 He has no hope to please his God Or find true peace and joy with - in.
 A - lone he has no hope, for he Can not by his own pow'r be saved.

O sin - ner come to Je - sus Christ! And find the rich - es He can give.
 O sin - ner come to Je - sus Christ! And find the wis - dom He can give.
 O sin - ner come to Je - sus Christ! Find right - eous - ness that He must give.
 O sin - ner come to Je - sus Christ! For He does sanc - ti - fy and give.
 O sin - ner come to Je - sus Christ! And find re - demp - tion He can give.

In Him find all for life and peace. O sin - ner look to Christ and live!
 He is the Way, the Truth, the Life. O sin - ner look to Christ and live!
 To be for - giv - en and made pure. O sin - ner look to Christ and live!
 A heart that loves and pleas - es God. O sin - ner look to Christ and live!
 In Him a - lone is free - dom gained. O sin - ner look to Christ and live!
