

How Shall I My Savior Set Forth?

He is before all things, and by Him all things consist (Colossians 1:17).

1. How shall I my Sav - ior set forth? How shall I His beau - ties de - clare?
 2. In Him all the ful - ness of God For - ev - er tran - scen - dent - ly shines;
 3. His wis - dom, His love, and His pow'r, Seemed then with each oth - er to vie;

O how shall I speak of His worth, Or what His chief dig - ni - ties are?
 Though once like a mor - tal He stood, To fin - ish His grac - ious de - signs.
 When sin - ners He stooped to re - store, Poor sin - ners con - demn - ed to die!

His an - gels can ne - ver ex - press, Nor saints who sit near - est His throne,
 Though once He was nailed to the cross, Vile re - bels like me to set free;
 He laid all His grand - eur a - side, And dwelt in a cot - tage of clay;

How rich are His trea - sures of grace; No! this is a mys - tery un -- known.
 His glo - ry sus - tain - ed no loss, E - ter - nal His king - dom shall be.
 Poor sin - ners He loved, till He died To wash their pol - lu - tion a - way.

4. O sinner, believe and adore
 The Savior so rich to redeem;
 No creature can ever explore
 The treasures of goodness in Him.
 Come, all ye who see yourselves lost,
 And feel yourselves burdened with sin,
 Draw near, while with terror you're tossed;
 Believe, and your peace shall begin.

5. Now, sinner, attend to His call,
 "Whoso hath an ear, let him hear!"
 He promises mercy to all,
 Who feel their sad wants, far and near;
 He riches has ever in store,
 And treasures that never can waste;
 Here's pardon, here's grace, yea, and more:
 Here's glory eternal at last.
